

MUSEUM
OF LONDON DOCKLANDS

Recycle Challenge

Sat 11 & Sun 12 June, 12-4pm

Join the fun at our weekend festival, as we set out on a mission to find new and imaginative ways to look after our city and our planet. Become an eco-champion for the day, make a junk masterpiece or help build a new London in our interactive activities.

FREE family festival

[museumoflondon.org.uk/
recyclechallenge](https://museumoflondon.org.uk/recyclechallenge)

Record a song on a handmade recycled instrument as part of a junk orchestra

Get involved with hands on crafts and workshops

Hear the story of the first junk playground in London and the inspirational Lady Allen whose idea it was

Planning your visit

Eating and drinking

Bring your own picnic and use our indoor lunch space, enjoy our café with family-friendly hot food and snacks or make the most of our restaurant's kids eat free offer (T&C's apply).

Access

Fully accessible to buggies and wheelchair users. Call 020 7001 9844 to find out more.

Families with babies and young children

Our children's gallery, Mudlarks, has soft play for little ones. We have buggy parking, baby-changing, special activity trails for children and highchairs in the cafés and restaurants.

West India Quay, London, E14 4AL

-  West India Quay
-  Canary Wharf (11 minutes from Waterloo)
-  Canary Wharf Pier (13 minutes from London Bridge Pier)
-  15, 115, 135, 277, D3, D6, D7, D8

Supported using public funding by

ARTS COUNCIL
ENGLAND